Child care service included in the Minimum Needs Programme

776. SHRI RAOOF VALIULLAH: Will the Minister of PLANNING be pleased to state:

(a) whether the representations of some women organisations have suggested that the child care services should be included in the Minimum Needs Programme; if so, what is the reaction of Government to their demand;

(b) what is the estimated number of the children living below poverty line and whether Government propose to initiate measures for providing child care services as a part of plan expenditure and work out a comprehensive programme for them; and

(c) what is the number of working women both in organised and unorganised sector and whether adequate funds have been allocated in the current plan for the purpose?

THE MINISTER OF PLANNING AND THE MINISTER OF PROGRAMME IMPLEMENTATION (SHRI MADHAVSINH SOLANKI): (a) Yes, Sir. Such suggestion for inclusion of child care services in the Minimum Needs Programme will be considered at an appropriate stage before the Eighth Plan is finalised.

(b) No separate statistics are being computed regarding the children living below poverty line. However, the number of persons below poverty line for the year 1983-84 for all population by rural and urban areas was 221.5 million and 49.5 million respectively.

A Working Group has been set up in connection with formulation of the Eighth Five Year Plan to suggest programmes for the child care services. The child care services will continue to be supported in Plan and non-Plan budgets.

(c) As per the latest National Sample Survey on employment and unemployment viz. the NSS 38th Round, the number of women workers in 1983 by the Usual (Principal) Activity Status was 72.80 million. The women employed in the organised sector in 1983-84 as per the estimate of the EMI Programme of the Ministry of Labour were 3.058 million.

An increased outlay of Rs. 261 crores has been provided in the current year's outlay of the epartment of Women & Child Development for women and children in relation to last year's (1988-89) outlay of Rs. 235 crores. Besides, benefits to children and women will also accrue from general sectoral programmes.
